Featured Author: DR. ARTHUR DOWEYKO

July 11th 6 - 8 PM, Addison Village Community Center

8150 Stadium Pkwy, Viera, Fl.

wine and cheese

His talk is titled:

"SCIENCE, WRITING, ART

A JOURNEY OF A LIFETIME"

728 E. New Haven Ave. Melbourne

As a scientist, Arthur has authored 140+ scientific publications and patents, invented novel 3D drug design software, and shares the 2008 Thomas Alva Edison Patent Award for the discovery of Sprycel, a new anti-cancer drug.

He's had a life-long interest in art as well as science, notably writing and painting. His favorite writing genres are science fiction and fantasy with a particular fascination for Serling's Twilight Zone episodes, as reflected in his short stories. He is the author of several award-winning works: novels - Algorithm and As Wings Unfurl, and numerous short stories, many of which appear in his anthologies My Shorts and Captain Arnold.

Captain Arnold* garnered the 2021 Royal Palm Literary Best Published Book Award (2nd Runner up). Besides fiction, Arthur also writes non-fiction, and his essay, "Five Reasons to Wonder," took 2nd Place in the 2019 Writers Digest Competition. His most recent novel, Wind-In-Trees, won the 2023 Joshua Tree Novel Contest and will be published by Kallisto Gaia Press.

Arthur was honored by winning the 2022 L. Ron Hubbard Illustrators of the Future Contest, a highly competitive international contest culminating in a Hollywood extravaganza attended by some of the best illustrators in the country. His illustrations have graced the covers of more than 20 published books in various genres.
