

BREVARD AUTHORS SOCIETY

Happy Thanksgiving

May your day be blessed with family and friends and may you follow a Thanksgiving tradition - Overeat!!!

THANK YOU TO ALL THE AMAZING AUTHORS WHO PARTICIPATED IN BOOK FEST IN THE VILLAGE 2025.

45 authors participated in the book festival held in Cocoa Village on November 8th. The weather participated as well. What a fun day. I'd be glad to hear your thoughts on the day's activities, about the venue, about the setup, and about your experience. Feel free to reply to this email. I look forward to your thoughts and ideas to help make our next festival even better. - Cindy Foley

KIP KOELSCH is the author of two award-winning technothrillers, Wendall's Lullaby and Delphys Rising, The Saga of the Cerulean Universe Trilogy (science fiction/space opera), TRINARY (a collection of three speculative fiction short stories), and The Peculiar Affliction of Thomas Wade Duncan (historical fiction with a witchy twist).

Koelsch, one-time freelance magazine writer, currently blogs about writing, critical thinking, outdoor adventure sports, paddling and his current fiction projects. Koelsch has an undergraduate degree in Journalism and Mass Media from Rutgers University in NJ and a master's degree in Humanities and American Studies from the University of South Florida in Tampa, FL.

A deep love for the environment, and the oceans in particular, is the basis for many of his books. He has volunteered for the marine mammal program at Mote Marine Lab, headed a manatee education program, taught a variety of college environmental studies courses, and explored many of the state's waterways, parks, forests, and preserves by kayak, foot, and bicycle.

Kips books are available on Amazon and he will have some available for purchase at the library.

“If you don’t have time to read, you don’t have the time (or the tools) to write. Simple as that.”

–Stephen King
